

Lisa Pollard

Lisa Pollard has a wide range of experience across State Government and Industry. She has recently led policy work in the Queensland State Government around the social policy aspects of the SEQ Regional Plan and Infrastructure Program, the Blueprint for the Bush and the Sustainable Resource Communities policy. Prior to this Lisa was consulting with Sinclair Knight Merz on social planning and social impact assessment. Born in Western Australia, Lisa moved to Queensland in 1994 and completed her PhD on Social Impact Assessment in Australia through Murdoch University in 2000. Lisa is currently Manager, Rural and Regional Queensland in the Department of Employment, Economic Development and Innovation.